OPPOSE TARIFF REDUCTION

SENATOR SMOOT SENDS MESSAGE TO GOV. CUTLER.

Indorsing the stand of the Utah mining men against the reduction of the tariff on lead, the board of governors of the Commercial club, in their meeting yesterday noon, placed themselves on record against the proposed tariff reduction and lent their influence and backing to the mining men's protest.

The action was taken at the instigation of the mining men, who asked the board of governors for an expression of opinion on the matter, as it was felt that their action, as representing the sentiment of the membership of business men comprising the club, would add strength to their protest. The following resolution, which was sent to Washington, was unanimously adopted:

"Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 21, 1908. To the Hon. Senator E. Payne, Chairman, and Members of the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.:

"Whereas, The matter of reducing the present tariff on lead is being considered before your honorable committee, we, the undersigned, representing the Commercial club of Salt Lake City, Utah, as its board of governors, respectfully represent that a reduction from the present tariff on lead will paralyze the mining industry of this state, bringing disaster to thousands of men employed, and to all industries which in a measure are associated with mining. That during the year 1900 the lead production of the state of Utah amounted to 60,000 tons, valued at $16,000,000. That Utah ranks third in the production of lead in the United States, the total production of which is valued at $38,000,000 for the year 1907. That the industry has been made possible by the tariff on the metal lead, and that an industry made possible by protection is as worthy of preservation as it is of the state. That the prosperity of the entire United States is dependent in a marked way on the welfare of the mining industry. Therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Commercial club of Salt Lake City, Utah, by its board of governors, earnestly petition your honorable body for a maintenance of the present lead tariff schedule, and pray that the latter status be maintained, which he told them that a reduction in the tariff on lead would cripple one of the great industries of the west.

Last evening Governor Cutler received a telegram from Senator Smoot, in which the latter stated that he realized that disaster would follow a reduction, and promised to do all in his power to keep the present schedule.

FOUR YEARS IN PRISON

Ebon J. Gregory Is Given Severe Sentence by Judge Marshall for Coin "Sweating."

Ebon J. Gregory, convicted of "sweating" United States gold coins, was sentenced to serve four years' imprisonment in the federal prison at Leavenworth by Judge Marshall yesterday morning. Gregory was convicted on three counts and was sentenced to serve four years on each count, concurrently, which makes the actual time of sentence four years. With his "copper" for good conduct he will be a free man again in a little over three years.

Gregory was brought into court at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and the iron nerve which he has displayed all through his trial failed him. When Judge Marshall asked him if he had anything to say, he broke down and wept like a child. He told the judge that he was guilty, but asked for mercy on account of his wife and children. He was then sentenced to serve four years in the United States prison at Leavenworth and to pay a fine of $1,000 on each count. He will be taken to the prison by Chief Deputy United States Marshal Julian Riley next week.

W. D. BROWN'S FATAL HURT

Well Known Salt Lake Man Is Run Down by Runaway Horse.

DIES TEN HOURS LATER

ENTIRE SIDE OF VICTIM IS CRUSHED IN BY HOOF.

W. D. Brown, 76 years old and for many years a well known resident of Salt Lake, was struck down by a runaway horse and buggy at the corner of First and South Main streets yesterday afternoon, and received injuries from the effect of which he died at 2 o'clock this morning.

The accident occurred shortly after 4 o'clock. Mr. Brown was standing in the street preparing to board a car for his home, when a buggy, driven by a man who was attracted by a commotion, turning around he found himself directly in the path of the runaway horse coming west on First South. Before he could move a step he was struck down by the horse and shaft of the buggy and trampled on by the hind hoofs of the madly dashing animal.

Mr. Brown was quickly picked up by bystanders and removed to the office of Dr. William F. Beer, 167 South Main street. Examination showed that the entire side had been literally crushed in, every rib broken, and that one of the shattered bones had pierced the lung. He also received other serious internal injuries and his forehead was severely bruised.

When it was announced by Dr. Beer that there was no hope of his recovery, Mr. Brown pleaded that he be taken to his home instead of the hospital.

"If I'm going to die," he protested, "I want to die in my home, where I was married and where I lived for forty-five years."

When his son-in-law, W. G. Romney, who occupies the house adjoining Mr. Brown's home, asked that he go there, the injured man was still obdurate and his wish was granted.

The runaway rig belonged to McCoy's barn, and at the time was engaged by John H. Harris, who carries on a picture business with offices in the Hooper building on First South street. The horse had been left standing at the curb while John Harris had gone into his office, and had taken fright at something. After knocking down Mr. Brown the horse continued its dash down First South street, until it crashed into a pole at West Temple street. The horse was caught there and found to be uninjured. The buggy was a total wreck.

LAUDANUM PROVES FATAL

Suicide Victim Dies Without Revealing His Identity or Motive for His Deed.

After over a twenty-hours fight on the part of physicians and attendants to save his life, the stranger giving the name of W. H. Rose succumbed yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock to the effects of the dose of laudanum self-administered some time between Thursday evening and 6 o'clock Friday.

Rose never regained consciousness from the time he was found lying in his bed, and his real identity is a complete mystery. The body was removed to O'Donnell's mortuary.

The suicide victim was discovered Friday night about 10 o'clock in a room in the Elk hotel, not the Elk hotel as erroneously stated yesterday. He had gone to the Elk hotel Thursday night and secured a room, registered as W. H. Rose, Denver. He retired shortly afterward and was not seen again until the manager, finding his room door still locked at 6 o'clock Friday, gained entrance and found the man lying on the bed, apparently in a dying condition, and with an emptied laudanum bottle beside him.

The man was removed to the emergency hospital, where Dr. Paul and others worked over him, but his efforts endeavoring to revive him. He was then removed to St. Mark's hospital, where he died.

KALEIDOSCOPIC SERIES OF EVENTS FOLLOWS VISIT TO POLICE STATION

Dashing from the city jail, pursued by a policeman and hastened on by three shots, only to fall into the arms of another policeman, and thrown into a cell, this rapid succession of events befell James Smith last night as the result of his curiosity to know what his wife was going to tell the police about him, which put the police station in a flurry of excitement for a few moments, and gathered a mob of a thousand and more in a jiffy.

The affair, which occurred about 7 o'clock, was unfolded in detail in the closing scene of the domestic troubles of Mr. and Mrs. Smith. It appears that their married life has been one in which of late years felicity has been far removed, and that a divorce suit instituted by Mrs. Isabella Smith will come up for hearing Tuesday. Angered at his wife's repeated refusals to become reconciled and at her determination to proceed with the suit for separation, he has repeatedly threatened her.

Last night, according to her story, as Mrs. Smith was standing on South Twelfth East street waiting for a downtown car, Smith approached her and in threatening manner told her that she "would not be alive three days from now." Terrified at the threat, she concluded to go to the police station for protection.

Smith followed her downtown, and when she entered the police station he was right behind her listening to her conversation with the desk sergeant. Mrs. Smith told Sergeant Pugsley that her husband had been threatening her life and that she was afraid of him. Patrolman McCormack chanced to be outside the railing, and to him Sergeant Pugsley said:

"Mac, you'd better take them to the Houten office."

McCormack laid his hand on Smith's arm and the trio started down the hallway, when, quick as a flash, and before the officer could realize what was happening, Smith turned and dashed out the door and down the stairs.

With a yell to stop, McCormack was after him, but Smith had gained a good

UTAH'S OPPORTUNITY TO SECURE HEADQUARTERS OF MINING CONGRESS

Governor Cutler has appointed John E. DuBois and Charles G. North, two noted representatives of the state of Utah in the American Mining congress convention to be held in Pittsburgh next month. Instructions will be given to the two Utah representatives to use every possible endeavor to capture the temple of the American Mining congress at Pittsburgh as long as Denver business men have openly avowed that that city does not want the honor, as the exclusively reported in yesterday's Herald.

Fisher Harris, secretary of the Commercial club, who has been active in the question of the location of the Utah Mining congress, the protection of the lives of miners, protection to mining interests and federal and state legislation in the interest of the mining industry.

"Utah should have an influential delegation to the congress, the state will properly represented in the effort to capture the mining temple and let the world know our rank as a mining center."

"The city council of Salt Lake, in its desire to get the temple, offered a building site, valued at $20,000, as a beginning. Representatives of Denver, however, pledged to raise a great sum for the erection and maintenance of the temple, and they were awarded the prize. Denver never redeemed its promise except in so far as it has been a waste of money."

"It is just as important now as it was then that Salt Lake should have that temple and the scene of the time American Mining congress."

"Representatives of mining interests in the trans-Missouri country recognize Salt Lake City as the actual geographical center."

HOMING PIGEONS KILLED.

Vandals Engage in Peculiar Form of Brutal Amusement.

What seems to have been an act of brutal vandalism was perpetrated on the police yesterday by H. D. Smith of 1912 Buffalo avenue. Mr. Smith is a pigeon fancier and makes his hobby the breeding of homers. When he went to the pigeon house yesterday morning he found the lock of the door broken, and upon entering found the heads of fourteen pigeons lying on the ground. The miscreant had evidently wrung the heads off the bodies, which he carried away with him.

Mr. Smith is unable to supply any motive for the wanton act. So far as he knows he is not the object of any enmity that would lead to the destruction of his pigeons as a matter of revenge, and it does not seem probable that the pigeons would be stolen for sale to a market or restaurant.

About half of Mr. Smith's doves were killed, including three birds that had made the flight from Ogden to Salt Lake within the past three days.

NEAR DEATH'S DOOR.

Doctor Said Mrs. Lucier's Stomach Was Worn Out, but Mi-o-na Cured Her.

Why, oh why will people of intelligence continue to suffer with dyspepsia, or distressing stomach troubles, when Mi-o-na, the only scientific remedy, has a record of thousands of just such cures as the following:

"I was near death's door. The doctor said my stomach was old and worn out. I was so weak I could not walk. I took Mi-o-na tablets, and have been eating hearty ever since, and I am able to work like a tiger. I wish I could go and thank you myself. I send you my picture, and you can use my word and my picture, and I thank you again."—Mrs. Nelson Lucier, 112 Fisk street, Athol, Mass.

Mi-o-na cures dyspepsia. There isn't a particle of doubt about it, and if any of the readers of The Herald are suffering from stomach trouble of any kind, F. C. Schramm will sell you a box of Mi-o-na for 50 cents with an absolute guarantee of relief or money back. In many cases one box will effect a permanent cure; in chronic conditions more is necessary. But one thing is certain: one box of Mi-o-na will make you feel so much better and brighter, so much more energetic, that you will not give it up till cured.

Mi-o-na is not a digester. Digesters never cured dyspepsia, and never will. Mi-o-na is a stomach strengthener that builds up the worn-out, flabby inside of the stomach, and makes the stomach strong enough to perfectly digest what you eat.

SURGEONS TAKE REEF IN DR. RICHARDS' STOMACH

Remarkable Recovery Follows Delicate and Dangerous Operation Performed in New York.

The removal of a portion of the stomach was an operation successfully accomplished recently in New York on Dr. Joseph S. Richards, who with his son, returned last evening from the east. The diminution of this important organ curtails Dr. Richards' meals somewhat, and at the same time his appetite has increased to a degree not equaled since his early youth. However, aside from the limitations of his diet, Dr. Richards is entirely well and is feeling as happy as possible under the circumstances.

Dr. Richards had been long a sufferer from stomach trouble, and with a view to securing the best surgical aid possible he went to New York. There the difficult operation was performed. His recovery in view of his advanced years is considered remarkable, especially because of the fact that very few such operations have proved successful in the past.

CREWS COULDN'T HELP IT. Leaves on Track Caused Cars to Skid Past Corners.

Dead leaves falling on the track on the Brigham street car line yesterday caused considerable annoyance to street car crews. The leaves when mashed to a pulp by the friction of the car wheels on the rails formed a greasy substance that caused the wheels to skid, interfering with the work of the brakes.

One incident meeting in connection with this difficulty is of a woman who was waiting on a Brigham street corner for a car. The wheels slipped on the greasy substance and the car went some what beyond the corner. The car was backed to the corner and the passenger got on. She was not, however, and upbraided the conductor for running past the corner in the first place.
